

Some Unusual Patterns to Look For

Harry Rickard (#1802) and John Lyding (L126)

The illustrated perfins have a distinct characteristics despite the fact that they appear to be just another group of collectible copies.

They are all on revenue stamps and most if not all were used by brokerage firms. We should mention that revenue collecting is a distinct branch of perfin collecting.

